What Domestic Violence Awareness Month means to the Willamette men's soccer team?

Domestic Violence affects millions in the U.S. on a daily basis. As soccer student-athletes, we are aware how these numbers increase greatly when looking at this from an international perspective. Willamette University Men's Soccer joins others in solidarity with survivors by supporting and inspiring those around us to build healthy relationships.

We pledge to keep people safe from Domestic Violence. We pledge to never be a bystander during someone's time of need. We commit to ensuring a culture where we are all safe, empowered, and free from Domestic Violence, worldwide. Men's Soccer is proud to wear the color purple to support survivors and bring awareness to Domestic Violence.
